- Interviewer Jin is with us today. He goes to school in China. Jin, what time does your school day start?
- Jin Our day always starts at 7.30 a.m. and we finish school at 5.00 p.m.
- Interviewer That's a long day! Do you have a lunch break?
- Jin Of course. We usually have a two-hour lunch break.
- Interviewer All students at your school wear a uniform: what do you wear?
- Jin At school I wear a white shirt and blue trousers. But for PE we wear yellow shirts.
- Interviewer When do you have PE lessons?
- Jin In our school we do exercise every day! It's fun!
- Interviewer That's great. And do you like studying?
- Jin Yes, I do. I study in the summer, holidays, as well!

Unit 2 Home sweet home

Listening, exercícios 1 e 2, página 26

CD1, faixa 29

- Interviewer So what's your bedroom like, Hannah? You love talking to people so I think you've got bright walls ...
- Hannah Yes, I have! They're bright yellow. And there's a bright green rug on the floor.
- Interviewer You probably like trying new things.
- Hannah Yes, I do.
- Interviewer Have you got any pictures on the walls?
- Hannah Yeah. I've got some posters of singers and photos of my friends. There aren't any pictures of me. I hate seeing pictures of myself.
- Interviewer OK, so you don't think a lot about yourself.
- Hannah And at the moment my room's quite tidy.
- Interviewer Really? That means you're happy.
- Hannah No, it doesn't. It means I need a lock on my door. My mum loves tidying my room. I can't stand it!

Unit 3 Getting around

- DJ And now it's five o'clock and time for our programme 'Good Day/Bad Day'. Today we're talking to Rose. Well, Rose? Was it a good day or a bad day for you?
- Rose A terrible day.
- DJ Oh dear. What happened?
- Rose Well, I got up late because I didn't hear my alarm clock and then I missed the bus.
- DJ Uh oh!
- Rose So, I rode my bike to work. I didn't ride along the main road because there were lots of cars, I went through the park. But then it started to rain.
- DJ Oh dear. So when you arrived at work ...
- Rose I was wet and cold. And late
- DJ And are you at work now?
- Rosie No, I'm at home. The office was closed. I forgot that it's Saturday today!

Unit 4 Breaking the rules

Listening, exercícios 1 e 2, página 50
CD2, faixa 14

Interview 1

Police officer Now, young man ... Robert ... Were you in the park this morning?

Rob Yes, I was – with my friend Sam Black. We spoke to Mrs Hill but I didn't take her bag. Sam stole it while she was telling us the time. Then Sam ran away and I ran after him. I wanted to catch him and give the bag back to Mrs Hill. That waiter in the hotel restaurant didn't understand. I'm not a thief!

Interview 2

Police officer So Mr Rossi, where were you at five minutes past nine?

Waiter I was working in the restaurant when I heard a noise. Suddenly, two boys ran into the hotel. Mrs Hill was following them. I caught the first boy in my arms. Mrs Hill – she was fantastic! – she stopped the second boy – the one with the bag. Then the manager arrived.

Interview 3

Police officer Now, sir, where were you just after nine o'clock?

Manager I was in my office at the hotel. Suddenly, I heard people shouting in the restaurant. I went inside and I saw Mrs Hill and the two boys. Mrs Hill used an amazing judo throw on the boy with the bag. Then she sat on him. Bruno – that's one of the waiters – caught the other boy. I phoned the police at once.

Unit 5 My friends

Listening, exercícios 1 e 2, página 60
CD2, faixa 28

Reporter What's your personality type, Toby?

Toby Er ... I'm not sure. I'm cheerful, but I don't like talking to people I don't know. That's why I don't enjoy going to parties.

Reporter What about you, Irena?

Irena Hmm. Well, I love my family and friends. I feel happy when they're happy, and I love giving them presents.

Reporter Elsa, what's your personality type?

Elsa Oh, it changes all the time. I mean, I can be happy and cheerful one minute, but the next minute I can feel sad.

Reporter Carl, tell me about your personality.

Carl Well, I enjoy going out with my friends, and I hate sitting at home studying or working.

Unit 6 The environment

Listening, exercícios 1 e 2, página 70
CD2, faixa 41

Girl This is an interesting museum.

Boy Not really. I'm bored. Let's go to the café.

Girl Wait! Look at that dinosaur.

Boy What does the guidebook say about it?

Girl Er ... the artist took four weeks to make it. She used plastic bags.

Boy Really? I thought it was a paper dinosaur!

Girl No ... The artist used 1,500 plastic bags. She wanted people to think about all the plastic bags they use.

Boy Why?

Girl Well, plastic bags pollute the planet. The artist's message is 'Don't be a dinosaur.'

Boy I don't understand.

Girl Well, we can't live on a polluted planet. We must change. Look what happened to the dinosaurs. They didn't change and they all died!

Listening, exercícios 1 e 2, página 94

CD3, faixa 16

- Boy Have you seen that crazy video on the internet?
- Girl Which one?
- Boy It's about a man called Matt. He's visited 42 countries in 14 months.
- Girl Lots of people do that. What's new?
- Boy Well, when he arrives at a place he dances.
- Girl You're joking!
- Boy I'm not. He's danced in Australia and America. These days he's in America. People watch him but he isn't a good dancer.
- Girl Do they laugh at him?
- Boy No, they don't. They dance too.
- Girl That is crazy.
- Boy But it's a great idea. It shows how people from different countries with different languages can still understand each other. Dancing is fun. Just watch the video! It's great!

Unit 9 Just the job

Listening, exercícios 1 e 2, página 104

CD3, faixa 27

- Presenter This week, in 'Summer Work for Teens' we are in Wisheaven, Pennsylvania. Tim Purcell, 16, has a job at the swimming pool here. Tim, what do you do at Wisheaven pool, and do you like your job?
- Tim I sell food at the snack bar, and I love my job.
- Presenter Tim has worked at Wisheaven for two summers. What's the work like, Tim?
- Tim Well, it's a little stressful when the snack bar is busy.
- Presenter Tim, you make $6.25 an hour. Is this good money?
- Tim Yes. Because I also get free drinks, 30 percent off the price of food, and I can swim for free in the pool.
- Presenter You like other things about this job too, don't you?
- Tim I sure do! I've made lots of new friends here. And I love watching everybody having fun! It's the best thing about the job.
